Meet David Beynon

David Beynon is a writer of speculative fiction who lives in Fergus, Ontario with his wife, two kids, a Golden Retriever and what increasingly appears to be an immortal cat.

Originally from Britain, David came to Canada as an infant, growing up on a farm just outside of Dundalk, Ontario. He has been a cow milker, a residence manager at the Hamilton Downtown YMCA (there's a novel waiting to be written about those four years), a factory worker and a purveyor of fine corrugated packaging and displays.

David writes speculative fiction of varying genres and lengths. In 2011, his novel, The Platinum Ticket was short-listed for the Terry Pratchett Prize.

Tesseract's Seventeen: Speculating Canada from Coast to Coast to Coast
